Help Historic England support heritage on the Isle of Wight

Historic England wants to find out about the heritage sites that are important to you on the Isle of Wight. Your feedback will help develop a new strategy for the National Heritage List for England to help protect the places and buildings which are most important to you and your community. As part of this, they are keen to hear from as many people as possible, so the list can be a better reflection of the views of local communities.

Historic England is a public body that protects your community's beloved spaces and champions the rights of the people to enjoy them to their full potential. This is achieved through their National Heritage List, which protects buildings and sites across England.
